DOMAINE F. BACHELIER

CÉPAGE: 100% CHARDONNAY

Domaine F. Bachelier is a very small estate that is set among the gently sloping hills of Maligny, which lies in the very heart of Chablis. Here, the Savary & Bachelier family makes classic, un-oaked Chablis that aptly reflects the true style of the Chablis appellation and the terroir of Maligny. Typically, this means a bright, shimmering greenish gold wine enhanced by an ethereal fragrance, a mouthful of racy, flinty flavors and a very crisp finish. All of this fine estate's wines are fermented and aged in stainless steel and bottled in the late spring after the vintage in order to preserve the greatest amount of freshness, pure pleasure in a glass.

In addition to producing excellent appellation Chablis Village, Domaine Bachelier also fashions tiny amounts of exquisite Premier Cru Chablis from the renowned vineyards of Fourchaume and Vaillons. All of the domaine's wines emanate from the classic chalky, limestone soil that has made French Chablis - the only true Chablis – famous the world over.

2005 Bachelier Chablis A.C.

“complex and serious green fruit nose that is exceptionally fresh . . . introduces delicious and juicy flavors that exhibit ample Chablis character and solid finishing punch. I like the frank no-nonsense style.” Great Value! BURGHOUND

2005 Bachelier Chablis 1er Cru Fourchaume

90 pts. “here the aromatic style is distinctly riper with pear and yellow fruit notes that complement the rich, intense and nicely concentrated middle weight flavors that culminate in an elegant, cool and linear finish.” Highly Recommended. BURGHOUND
