

POMMARD DOMAINE PARENT

2007 Domaine Parent Pommard « La Croix Blanche »

88-90 Points

“A subtle touch of wood frames a more refined nose of very pretty and layered dark berry fruit and warm earth aromas that give way to rich, full and round flavors that possess a good sense of underlying harmony as well as real verve on the solidly firm but not hard finish. This is a lovely villages that is very Pommard.” -Burghound 4/1/09

2007 Domaine Parent Bourgogne Pinot Noir

“Outstanding Top Value”

“A fresh and relatively bright red berry fruit and earthy nose leads to detailed, punchy and delicious flavors that possess more depth than is typical with wines at this level, all wrapped in an attractively persistent finish.” -Burghound 4/1/09
