

DOMAINE GUY AMIOT

BOUZERON "LES BOUILLOTES"

Domaine Amiot was founded in Chassagne-Montrachet in 1920 by Arsène Amiot when he acquired select parcels of vines or “climats” in Chassagne including Vergers, Caillerets, Clos St. Jean and in what is today Le Montrachet. Under Arsène, Domaine Amiot became one of the first domaines in Burgundy to bottle their own production. In the 1930’s the domaine passed to Arsène’s son, Pierre, who continued to add top sites such as Champsgains, Macherelles, Maltrorie and their tiny parcel in Puligny, Les Demoiselles. Pierre’s son, Guy, took the reins in 1985 and solidified the reputation of the domaine for producing wines of exceptional quality from an impressive array of top vineyard sites. Guy’s son Thierry took over the winemaking in 2003 and continues the tradition of expressing the unique character of each vineyard site while constantly seeking to improve the quality of the wines.

Region:	Burgundy
Appellation:	Bouzeron
Owner:	Thierry and Fabrice Amiot
Established:	1920
Farming Practices:	Sustainable
Soil:	Marl and limestone
Grape Varieties:	100% Aligoté
Vineyard:	0.54 ha outside of Chassagne-Montrachet in the Côte Chalonnaise
Age of Vines:	45 years
Yield:	40-50 hl/ha

Vinification and Élevage: Alcoholic fermentation in stainless steel tanks after which the young wine is put into barrels to age for 12 months. The wine is then assembled in stainless steel tanks to “marry” until bottling, generally in early Spring.

About Bouzeron: Bouzeron is located in the Côte Chalonnaise region, just south of Chassagne-Montrachet. The appellation was created in 1998, making it one of now five appellations in the Côte Chalonnaise. Bouzeron is the only village appellation for wines made from the Aligoté grapes in Burgundy. Vines are cultivated exclusively on the upper slopes of the region on land composed of white marl with a predominantly limestone base.

Tasting Notes: Brilliant golden hue with green-gold highlights. The floral bouquet offers complex aromas of orchard fruits with mineral scents and a touch of vanilla. The palate is supple with a layered texture and a refreshing, mineral-tinged finish.
