

DOMAINE LA PERDRIÈRE

CÔTES DU RHÔNE VILLAGES SABLET “GRAND FONT”

Domaine La Perdrière, formerly known as Domaine Chamfort, is run by the energetic and irrepressible vigneron, Vasco Perdigão and his wife Sonia. While Vasco is of Portuguese origin, he has fully integrated himself into the life of a vigneron in the southern Rhône as proprietor of the 27-hectare domaine in Sablet, at the northern edge of the Gigondas appellation. Here he produces limited amounts of Côtes du Rhône, Sablet, Séguret, Rasteau and his main wine, Vacqueyras. The combination of old vines, low yields and excellent southeast exposure results in full-bodied wines of great warmth and generous character, yet still very approachable in the classic style of southern Rhône wines.

Vinification and Élevage: The grapes are hand-harvested and then vinified using natural yeast in stainless-steel tank and concrete. The wine is then aged for 8 months in barrique, 20% new oak. During aging, there is as little intervention as possible to allow for a natural expression of the varieties, the terroir, the finesse and to preserve the freshness of the wine.

Tasting Notes: Aromatic nose of pear, quince and citrus that are also expressed on the palate. The wine has a nice weight on the palate with crisp fruit flavors. Enjoy with shrimp and seafood dishes as well as with lighter meat dishes such as chicken or veal.
